SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with 43 CFR 4770.3, "Any person who is adversely affected by a decision of the authorized officer * * * may file an appeal * * * " Under the regulations of the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) implementing the Administrative Procedure Act, most appealed decisions are stayed pending resolution of the appeal by the Interior Board of Land Appeals (IBLA). The existing rules delay wild horse and burro repossession decisions for up to 2 years pending the IBLA rulings.

The present regulations provide no means for immediate cancellation of a PMACA and repossession of adopted animals when an adopter's abuse or negligence threatens the welfare of a wild horse or burro. The BLM continues to have several cases every year that require immediate removal of an animal from an adopter to prevent severe or long-term damage to the animal's health. The health and welfare of these animals will be benefitted by implementation of this rule upon publication.

The principal author of this interim final rule is Vernon R. Schulze, wild horse and burro program specialist, assisted by the staff of the Division of Legislation and Regulatory Management, BLM.

It has been determined that this rule does not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and that no detailed statement pursuant to section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4332(2)(C)) is required.

The Department of the Interior has determined under Executive Order 12291 that this document is not a major rule, and under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) that it will not have significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Additionally, as required by Executive Order 12630, the Department has determined that the rule would not cause a taking of private property.

This rule does not contain information collection requirements that require approval by the Office of Management and Budget under 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq. However, an additional paragraph has been added to the Note at the beginning of Group 4700 describing the information collection burden imposed by other regulations in the Group, as required by the Departmental Manual of the Department of the Interior. This Note has no relation to the substantive provisions of this rule.
